

Support

Learning Support is provided through specialist teachers and intervention program. Access to extra support is through consultation with a Learning Support Teacher or a Guidance Officer, who meet with parents to make decisions on the most effective program for students within available resources. This school has a strong and focused Special Needs Program.